Notices

Fees: Phased permitting fees are in addition to standard permit fees

- a) One and two family dwellings: $150 application fee per phase plus 10% of the total building permit fee not to exceed $1,650 per phase.
- b) Other structures: $250 application fee per phase plus 10% of the total building permit fee not to exceed $1,750 per phase.

Summary of phased permitting: If granted, phased permitting will shorten the review time.

Approval risks: The building official is authorized to issue a permit for the construction of foundations or any other part of a building or structure before the construction documents for the whole building or structure have been submitted, provided that adequate information and detailed statements have been filed complying with pertinent requirements of the code. The applicant of such permit for the foundation or other parts of a building or structure shall proceed at the applicant's own risk with the building operation and without assurance that a permit for the entire structure will be granted.

Approval process:

- a) A completed application must be submitted a minimum of one week prior to submittal of plans for review.
- b) Once the application is received, staff will contact all of the departments required to review the project and verify each department has the resources to meet the review timelines. If all departments have the resources, the phase permitting application will be approved.
- c) A third party provider may be employed to meet the timelines.
